Resolve Incorporating

The Connecticut Historcial Society.

Passed May, 1825; Renewed May, 1839;

Amended February, 1905, May, 1923.

Resolved by this Assembly, That John Trumbull, Thomas C. Brownell, Timothy Pitkin, John S. Peters, William W. Ellsworth, Thomas Day, Thomas Robins, Daniel Burhans, Thomas Hubbard, Isaac Toucey, Nathaniel S. Wheaton, George Sumner, Roger M. Sherman, William T. Williams, Martin Wells, Joseph Battell, William Cooley, Thomas H. Gallaudet, Thomas S. Williams, Eli Todd, Walter Mitchell, George W. Doane, Samuel B. Woodward, S. H. Huntington, Samuel W. Dana, James Gould, Samuel A. Foote, Nathan Johnson, Hawley Olmsted, Benjamin Trumbull, John Hall, and their associates and successors, be, and hereby are ordained, constituted and declared to be forever hereafter, a body corporate, by the name of The Connecticut Historical Society, and by that name, they, their associates and successors shall and may have perpetual succession; shall be capable of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, and also to purchase, receive, hold and convey any estate, real or personal, to an amount not exceeding seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and may have a common seal, and the same may alter at pleasure, may establish rules relative to the admission of future members; may ordain, establish, and put in execution such by-laws and regulations, not contrary to the provisions of this charter, or the laws of this State, as shall be deemed necessary for the government of said Corporation.

The Governor of this State, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Judges of the Superior Court, shall be ex-officio members of the Society.

Said Corporation shall meet once a year for the choice of a President, Vice-President, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, and such other officers as may be designated from time to time by the by-laws of the Society.

The first meeting of the Society shall be holden at the State House in Hartford at such time as shall be designated by the Honorable John Trumbull, notice thereof being previously given in one or more newspapers printed in Hartford.

Provided, nevertheless, that this act of incorporation shall be subject to be revoked or altered, at the pleasure of the General Assembly.

By-Laws.

ARTICLE I. MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. The Society shall consist of active, corresponding, and honorary members. Only active members shall be entitled to vote in any meeting of the Society.

Corresponding and honorary members shall be persons residing out of the State of Connecticut, and shall not be subject to any admission fee or dues.

Honorary members shall be persons who may have rendered important public service to the State of Connecticut, or to the cause of historic inquiry, or literature generally.

SECTION 2. Every application for active membership shall be in writing, signed by the applicant, shall be supported by the written recommendation of at least one active member residing in the State of Connecticut, and shall be accompanied by the admission fee of three dollars. Such applications must be made upon blank forms furnished by the Society and shall contain a brief personal sketch of the applicant.

Every nomination for the election of corresponding or honorary members shall be based upon the application, in writing, of at least two active members, residing in the State of Connecticut, stating the reason for such nomination, and the qualifications of the persons proposed for membership.

SECTION 3. No person shall be voted for as an active, corresponding, or honorary member until at least the meeting next succeeding the one at which his election is recommended by the Committee on Membership.

Whenever a vote shall be taken on the admission of a member and there shall be found two ballots against his admission, the presiding officer shall declare the election postponed. At the next regular meeting, if the recommendation of the Committee on Membership shall be renewed, he may be admitted by the votes of two-thirds of the members present.

SECTION 4. Active members shall pay as annual dues to the Society three dollars if they reside within the city of Hartford, and two dollars if they reside without said city. Any active member, not indebted to the Society for dues, may constitute himself a life member by paying at one time the sum of fifty dollars.

The annual dues of members shall be payable in advance on the first day of May in each year. The payment of the annual dues shall constitute a condition of membership, and the neglect or refusal to pay the same for the period of six months after they become due shall be deemed a withdrawal from the Society.

ARTICLE II. OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The officers of the Society, to be elected at the annual meeting by ballot, and to hold their offices for one year and until others shall be chosen, shall be, a President, not exceeding eight Vice-Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, an Auditor, a Committee on Membership to consist of seven members, Committees on the Library, on Publication, and on Monthly Papers, each to consist of three members. Only active members resident in the State of Connecticut shall be eligible to office.

The preceding officers and the chairmen of the several committees shall constitute the Standing Committee of the Society.

The presiding officer shall name the members of all special committees ordered raised at any meeting.

A Librarian and Cabinet Keeper shall be appointed by the Standing Committee, whenever such appointment shall be deemed advisable.

SECTION 2. The President shall be chairman of the Standing Committee, and a member of the Committees on Membership, the Library, and Publication; shall preside at all meetings of the Society and of the Standing Committee; and shall deliver or provide for an address at the annual meeting.

The Recording Secretary shall call all meetings of the Society; shall have custody of the files, records, and seal of the Society; shall give notice to new members of their election, and furnish them certificates of membership; and shall keep an accurate journal of the transactions of the Society and of the Standing Committee.

The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence in behalf of the Society.

The Treasurer shall receive the admission fees, and report the names of the persons paying the same to the Recording Secretary; shall receive all other moneys due, and all donations or bequests of money made to the Society; shall pay to the order of the chairman of the Standing Committee such sums as may be required for the ordinary expenses of the Society and such as the Society or Standing Committee may otherwise direct to be paid; shall keep a true and faithful account of all moneys received and paid by him, and of the property and debts of the Society; and shall, at the annual meeting, render an audited statement thereof.

The Librarian, under the direction of the Committee on the Library, shall arrange and have charge of all books, pamphlets, manuscripts, and other articles belonging to or deposited in the rooms of the Society; and shall, at the annual meeting of the Society, make a full report of his doings as Librarian during the past year, and of the condition of the Library.

The Auditor shall, prior to the annual meeting, examine the books, accounts and financial statements of the Treasurer, and compare the same with the vouchers and securities in the Treasurer's hands and certify the result of such examination to the Society.

SECTION 3. The Committee on Membership shall consider all applications for membership, and shall report to the Society such applications as said Committee may approve and recommend for admission. No applications for membership shall be considered or acted upon by said Committee during a meeting of the Society.

The Committee on the Library shall have the general oversight and management of the Library, manuscripts and other collections belonging to or deposited with the Society. Said Committee shall make purchases for the library to such an amount as may be appropriated from time to time for the purpose.

The Committee on Publication shall have the superintendence of all publications ordered by the Society. They shall, from time to time, report to the Society respecting the selection and arrangement of such papers, from the library of the Society or other sources, as are most suitable for publication in volumes of the Society's Collections.

The Committee on Monthly Papers shall provide for a paper to be read at each regular meeting of the Society.

The Standing Committee shall act generally in behalf of the Society, and shall fill all vacancies in any offices until the next regular meeting of the Society. Any five members of this Committee may constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and a notice for a meeting of the Society shall be deemed a notice for a meeting of this Committee, Special meetings of this Committee may be called by the Recording Secretary by direction of the President.

ARTICLE III. MEETINGS.

SECTION 1. An annual meeting shall be held in the month of May, at such time as the Standing Committee shall appoint.

A regular meeting shall be held on the first Tuesday evening of each month from October to May inclusive, unless otherwise ordered.

SECTION 2. Special meetings shall be called by direction of the President, or, in his absence, on the application of three active members to the Recording Secretary.

Notice of each meeting of the Society shall be sent by mail to each active member at least two days prior thereto. And at any meeting, duly called and notified, ten members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE IV. DONATIONS AND DEPOSITS.

All donations to and deposits with the Society shall be entered in books kept for that purpose.

No donations shall be exchanged or disposed of unless the Society have a duplicate of the same.

All deposits left with the Society shall be carefully preserved, and may at any time be taken away by the depositor in person, or delivered on his written order. But every deposit which has not been so reclaimed or withdrawn shall, after the decease of the depositor, be entered as a donation, and be deemed the property of the Society; unless, at the time of making the deposit, other conditions shall have been prescribed by the depositor.

ARTICLE V. LIBRARY.

The rooms, with all books, manuscripts, pictures, and articles belonging to or deposited with the Society, shall be under the immediate charge of the Librarian, acting under the direction of the Committee on the Library.

The library shall be open for the inspection of the public, and the examination of books and manuscripts, and transcription therefrom, at such time, and on such conditions, as shall be prescribed by the Committee on the Library; and no book or manuscript shall be taken from the rooms without a special vote of the Society, except by the Committee on Publication.

ARTICLE VI. PUBLICATION FUND.

The legacy left to the Society by its late President, the Hon. Thomas Day, the avails of all life memberships, and all special donations and subscriptions which may be made thereto, shall constitute a Publication Fund, the income of which shall be applied, under the direction of the Committee on Publication, toward the expense of such publications as may be ordered by the Society.

ARTICLE VII. ALTERATIONS.

Any alteration of these by-laws shall be submitted to a regular meeting, held prior to that on which the vote on the same is taken.

President's Address.

To the Members of the Connecticut Historical Society:

My report of last year made mention of the gift to this Society by the will of our late deceased life member George Edward Hoadley of one half of his residuary estate, for the purpose of erecting a fire-proof building for the Society. At that time it was known only that this would be a considerable sum; but the amount was unknown. The settlement of the estate revealed that the sum was larger than had been anticipated. A distribution of the estate was made on December nineteenth and there was set off to the Society securities and cash valued at $252,784.73. In addition the Society received a number of historical pamphlets and a quantity of manuscripts and autograph letters which had been appraised at $5,021.00. A statement in some detail regarding these manuscripts will appear in the report of the Librarian.

This munificent bequest from Mr. Hoadley with nearly $20,000.00 which he had given the Society for the same purpose previous to his death, together with the accumulations of income on the fund, will, it is hoped, enable the Society to proceed with the erection of a building as soon as arrangements and plans for the work can be made. Such an undertaking as this requires the most careful consideration, that mistakes may be avoided both in the location and the planning of the building. A committee has been appointed "to consider the problem of a suitable building to be erected from the proceeds of the Hoadley Fund"; but as yet sufficient study has not been given to the problem to warrant a report from that committee. That a building is very much needed is known to all who are familiar with the Society, while others need only to view the crowded condition of our rooms to assure themselves of such need.

Under the will of Dr. William Ward Knight of Hartford, a member of the Society for twenty-nine years, whose death occurred last December, the Society receives a legacy of $7,000.00. This legacy is, however, subject to a life use, and is not expected to become available to the Society for a considerable number of years.

It is to be hoped that in the near future others will remember the Society either by direct gift or by inclusion in their wills, as with the occupancy of a new building and larger quarters, the general expenses of administration will be enormously increased.

It is a matter on which the Society is to be congratulated that we have received as a gift from one of our officers, Gen. Lucius B. Barbour, of Hartford, all of the remaining unsold copies of that valuable work, Manwarings abstracts of the Probate Records of Hartford District from 1635 to 1750.

It is to be regretted that there have been delays in printing the volume of our Collections which is to contain the Wyllys family papers, so that it is not yet published. Meanwhile other copy has been prepared, so that it is hoped the publication of a volume to be paid for from our Ancient Vital Records Fund may soon be undertaken.

At our monthly meetings during the year the following interesting papers have been read:

Robert J. Burdette and his contemporaries; a builder's estimate, by Hon. Charles C. Cook, at the October meeting.

Racial distribution of the settlers of the colonies before the Revolutionary War, by Professor William B. Bailey, at the November meeting.

French traits, by Professor Henry A. Perkins, at the December meeting.

Shakespeare personally, by Dr. Allan D. Risteen, at the January meeting.

Some notes on wampum, by Edwin Stanley Welles, at the February meeting.

The early history of Pemaquid, by Lewis W. Allen, at the March meeting.

Egypt, by Clifton L. Sherman, at the April meeting.

Some first editions of American authors, by Dr. George C. F. Williams, at the May meeting. This paper was illustrated by the exhibition of numerous examples of rare first editions from Dr. Williams' own library.

Death has taken its toll of our members and we record the loss of the following:

Rev. Francis Goodwin of Hartford, admitted December 1876, died October 5, 1923.

Forrest Morgan of Hartford, admitted May 1886, died February 24, 1924.

Rev. Charles Cummings Stearns of Claremont, Cal., admitted May 1888, a life member and formerly a resident of Hartford, died May 25, 1924.

Sidney Morse Gladwin of Hartford, admitted October 1890, died September 15, 1923.

Thomas Jefferson Boardman of Hartford, admitted March 1892, died June 17, 1923.

Lyman Allyn Upson of Thompsonville, admitted July 1893, died January 24, 1924.

Dr. William Ward Knight of Hartford, admitted December 4, 1894, died December 4, 1923.

Lawrence Van Alstyne of Sharon, a life member, admitted March 1894, died November 30, 1923.

Ebenezer Sanborn Phillips of Bridgeport, a life member, admitted May 1898, died in 1919.

Thomas Little of Hartford, admitted October 1905, died in June 1923.

Mrs. Louise B. Parsons of New Britain, admitted March 1909, died in August 1921.

Judge Lucien Francis Burpee of Waterbury, an ex-officio member since March 1909, and who in December 1920 became also an active member, died May 10, 1924.

Edwin Perkins Piper of Hartford, admitted May 1909, a member of the Society's Library Committee, died May 26, 1924.

Judge James Henry Webb of Hamden, an ex officio member since November 1914, died April 19, 1924.

Alfred T. Richards of Hartford, admitted November 1916, died July 17, 1923.

Oliver A. Hiscox of Woodstock Valley, admitted May 1917, died May 24, 1924.

Walter Stanley Schutz of Hartford, admitted February 1921, died January 4, 1924.

Isaiah Baker, Jr., of Hartford, admitted December 1921, died November 30, 1924.

Gilman C. Hill of Waterbury, admitted January 1922, died in December 1923.

Mrs. Sarah Francis Dorrence of Plainfield, admitted February 5, met a tragic death at a railroad crossing March 14, 1924.

Forty-four new members have been elected during the year and three have been added to the ex-officio list. There have been 20 deaths, including three life members and two ex-officio members. Four members have resigned, and the names of a few have been dropped from the roll. The present membership consists of 498 active, of whom 31 are members for life, 20 ex-officio, one of whom is also an active member, one honorary and two corresponding; a total membership of 520, the largest in the history of the Society.

One year from this month marks the centennial of the organization of this Society in May 1825. While there have been some handicaps in its work and some periods when its activities have been much curtailed, its career as a whole has been one that is worthy of the state which it represents. Does it not seem that some special note of this centennial should be made, perhaps by a public meeting at which representatives of other similar societies might join with us in a recognition of the event, or by an address outlining the history, growth and activities of the Society during its first century with a hopeful glimpse into its second century?

The report up to this point has been prepared for me by the librarian, at my request. No report would be complete, however, without a mention by the President of the debt owed by the Society to Mr. Bates for the devoted service he has given to it. It is not too much to state that the position which our library holds is, in my judgment, due as much to the knowledge and learning of our librarian as it is to the books which it contains.

It is, of course, known to all of you that the funds of the Society have never permitted an adequate compensation to be paid to those who have served it so faithfully and efficiently, and it is by calling this situation to your attention each year that I hope that some day our funds will be sufficiently enlarged to enable us to feel that those who are in our employ do not remain so at a considerable personal sacrifice.

At this time I wish to call the attention of our members to the resignation of John Felt Morris, members of whose family have been treasurers of this Society for the past forty-nine years, including Mr. Morris' own term. Such records as this remind us that this loyal spirit which has led one family to give us so freely of their time and thought for so long a period is one of the fundamental reasons for the position now held by the Society.

I would repeat what I have said in the earlier part of this report with regard to the problem that confronts the Society in connection with its new building. The sum that Mr. Hoadley left us is a handsome one, and yet, unless it is handled with the greatest care, it will not provide adequately for future growth combined with the beauty of structure that should perpetuate a gift of this character. One cannot, of course, forecast the future with any feeling of confidence, but my own judgment is that this problem of construction is not one that will have to be solved by your officers during their present term of office.

In closing let me express the hope that my associate officers and the committees of the Society will work as earnestly and as efficiently this coming year as they have the past, so that at its close we may review it in our minds and feel that the Society has progressed during our term of office.

MORGAN B. BRAINARD,

President.

Librarian's Report.

Mr. President and Members of the Society:

The year now closing has been, in one way at least, the most important since the organization and incorporation of the Society. For during this year we have received from the estate of our former life member, Mr. George E. Hoadley, the bequest made by him to the Society for the purpose of erecting a fireproof building. With the erection of a commodious building to house our library and miscellaneous collections, and with some further increase of our funds for general expenses of maintenance, our books can be better arranged and made more accessible than they now are, many can be placed on the shelves which are now packed away where they cannot be consulted, our historical and genealogical manuscripts can be better arranged and cared for and our paintings and various historical relics can be displayed to better advantage. Provision will doubtless also be made for the display of collections of the stone implements and other relics of our local Indians. The possibilities for increased work, for greater usefulness and for a wider field of activities by the Society appear very great, when once the handicap of cramped quarters shall have been removed.

The total number of readers for the year is 3,304, exceeding the number for the last year by fifteen per cent.

The number of accessions, other than manuscripts, during the year is thirty-three per cent. greater than last year. Of these the number received by gift is eight per cent. above last year; the total of volumes being less and of pamphlets and miscellaneous items more than last year. The purchases, due to some unusual opportunities that have occurred, are more than double those of last year and include items of more than ordinary interest. A detailed account of the accessions is as follows: by gift, 423 volumes, 537 pamphlets and 361 miscellaneous; by purchase, including 21 volumes and one pamphlet credited to special funds, 332 volumes, 244 pamphlets and 132 miscellaneous; by exchange, two volumes, 23 pamphlets and one miscellaneous. These make a total of 759 volumes, 804 pamphlets and 494 miscellaneous; or a grand total of 2,055 items.

The Society's unrivalled collection of eighteenth century Connecticut imprints, in which your librarian takes much interest, has been increased during the year by the addition of 18 books and pamphlets printed in 1782, '84, '86, '89, '91, '92, '93, '94 (2), '95 (2), '96 (2), '97 (4), '99; and four broadsides of 1776, '91 (2), '92.

Genealogies of the following families have been added to the library during the year: Allis, Ayars (2), Bancroft, Beach, Bicknell, Boardman, Brondson & Box, Bulkeley (to replace a copy stolen some years ago), Burritt, Cary (2), Davis, Denison, Dixon, Dolbeare, Fairfax, Fulton-Hayden-Warner, Gage, Geer, Grant Association, Gregg, Griffing, Hakes, Harris, Hendrick, Herkimer & Schuyler, Hill, Holcomb, Johnson, Kasson, Kelley, Lincoln, Lippincott (2), Loomis, Lunt, Lyman-Clapp, MacLean, Magoun, Meech, Mott, Nelson, Newcomb, Nichols, Northrup, Olmsted, Parker-Ruggles, Prouty, Rascob Green, Rich, Richardson, Richelieu, Sage & Slocum, Sanders, Sebor, Sherman, Spear, Spicer, Sprague, Stafford, Stokes, Strassberger, Stratton, Swan-Farwell, Townshend, Tracy, Travers, Webb, Whiting.

Undoubtedly the printed item of the greatest historical interest acquired during the year is the broadside proclamation issued by Gov. Jonathan Trumbull June 18, 1776, which is usually spoken of as Connecticut's Declaration of Independence; but which at the time of its adoption by the General Assembly was designated as a "Proclamation for Reformation, &c." This proclamation, which is one of less than half a dozen known copies, was presented by our president Morgan B. Brainard and had belonged to our former vice-president James Terry. A handsome gift received from Wallace Nutting is a copy of his book, "Connecticut Beautiful," which he dedicated to the Society. From Mr. Hoadley's estate we secured the unique copy of the first printing of Rev. and Dr. Gershom Bulkeley's history of the Colony entitled "Will and Doom, Or the Miseries of Connecticut by and under an Usurped and Arbitrary Power," written in 1692 but not printed until 1875, when it was to form a part of the third volume of the Collections of this Society. Before it was issued the whole edition of the Will and Doom with the exception of this copy was destroyed by fire. The volume was finally issued by this Society twenty years later, and accompanying this unique copy is one of the twenty-five separately printed copies of the 1895 edition. Other books of interest include the Logs of the Serapis, Alliance and Ariel under John Paul Jones, completing our set of the publications of the Naval History Society; two volumes of the Victoria History of the Counties of England, the gift of our late vice-president James J. Goodwin; Pirates of the New England coast by Dow and Edmonds; a number of Charleston, S. C., Year books; four bound volumes of pamphlets giving centennials of New Hampshire towns; four large scrap books relating to Wethersfield, arranged by our late member William F. J. Boardman; the Westmoreland probate records, printed by the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society; Journal of a tour to and residence in New Connecticut in 1820 and 1821 by Dr. Zerah Hawley of Farmington; Church records of Plymouth, Mass., vol. 2; Letters of members of the Continental Congress, vol. 2, July, 1776, to December, 1777, which includes copies from original letters in the Society's possession; Pennsylvania Act of 1799 against Connecticut claimants; catalogue of New England diaries from 1602 to to 1800; the Memorial of Pedro Menendez de Aviles, Governor of Florida, issued by the Florida State Historical Society, a volume which delighted our late member Forrest Morgan; Records of the Colony of New Plymouth, 12 vols.; Acts and Resolves of Massachusetts Bay, 8 vols.; reprints of the Colonial laws of Massachusetts of 1660 and 1672; one of the twenty copies separately issued of the 1858 reprint of New Havens Settling in New England, London, 1656; Sibley's Harvard graduates; Hough's Lewis county, N. Y.; Oldmixon's British Empire in America, London, 1708, 2 vols.; Knapp's Maumee Valley, O.; Authentic journal of the siege of Havana, London, 1762; Plain narrative of the reduction of Manilla in 1762; Hollister's Lackawanna Valley, N. Y.; Psalter or Psalmes of David, New London, 1795; Vade mecum for America, Boston, 1732.

It is a pleasure to note the publication of the second and final volume of New Haven Vital Records; also of a small but useful Tourists guide to Connecticut, issued by the Mattatuck Historical Society. The first volume of Families of Ancient New Haven (New Haven Genealogical Magazine) by Donald Lines Jacobus has been completed and two of the four numbers of volume two issued.

An item of much historical interest is the discovery and announcement by our member Luke Vincent Lockwood that Nicholas Desbrowe of Hartford was the maker of the so-called "Connecticut chests," now so highly prized by collectors of early New England furniture.

The annual donation of directories of different towns and cities by the Hartford Printing Company (Elihu Geer Sons) was larger this year than usual, amounting to almost 200 volumes. Not until the new building is erected and occupied can a proper arrangement and shelving of our extensive directory library be made.

The manuscripts acquired during the year and the sources from which they were received are as follows:

Penelope Terry Abbe Chapter D. A. R., Enfield.

The two early manuscripts presented by President Brainard are of unusual interest. The address of Connecticut to King George III is in the handwriting of and signed by "Thomas Fitch, governor," and is one of condolence with the new king upon the death of his illustrious grandfather, the former king, and of congratulation upon his own accession to the throne. Curiously enough neither the records of the Colony of Connecticut nor the official correspondence which passed between the Colony and England make any mention of this address, and the document itself, which has only recently come to light, is the only evidence that such an address was prepared and sent. The second document, which bears the signature of "George R." III, is an instruction to the Governor and Company of Connecticut declaring and directing the necessary changes in the prayers, litanies and collects for the royal family, due to the death of George II and the accession of George III. Such an official document addressed to Connecticut and bearing the royal sign manual is of the utmost rarity. This manuscript is accompanied by the printed order or proclamation of His Majesty in Council authorizing these changes.

The History of the New Cambridge (Bristol) Episcopal Church written by our member James Shepard, the manuscript of which he has recently presented to us, represents many months of work and it has been his earnest hope to see the work in print; but in this he has up to the present time been disappointed, although it is ready for the press.

Under the will of our generous patron Mr. George E. Hoadley the Society has received his historical pamphlets and his collection of autographs and historical manuscripts. Among the pamphlets may be mentioned a number of eulogies on George Washington; the Columbian tragedy, Hartford, 1791, giving an account of the defeat of General Butler by the Indians; Remarks on the letter addressed to two great men, Boston, about 1760; Bishop Seabury's Communion office, New London, 1786, unfortunately imperfect; American cookery by A. Simmons, Hartford, 1796, a rare publication upon the subject; Short account of the experience of Jonathan Edwards, Boston, 1745; Joel Barlow's Advice to the privileged orders, the first edition of both parts; Present state of North America, Boston, 1755; Considerations on the propriety of imposing taxes in the British colonies, New York, 1765; Candid examination of Dr. Mayhew's observations, Boston, 1763; Twenty-six letters respecting the Revolution by John Adams, New York, 1789; Taxation no tyranny, London, 1775. There were also a number of the little publications issued by the "Hartford wits," so-called: The Stand, The Candle, The Extinguisher, The Round Table, The Square Table, The Retort, The Parterre, The Magpie.

The historical manuscripts have already been listed. The autograph collection is extensive and contains many items worthy of special note; but at this time only a selection of the more important items can be mentioned. The arrangement, with the exception of the Sigourney collection, is that which had been made by Mr. Hoadley.

The collection of autographs of the Presidents is complete and in addition to those noted elsewhere, contains autograph letters from Presidents and Vice-Presidents James Monroe, Aaron Burr, John Q. Adams, Daniel D. Tompkins, Andrew Jackson, Richard M. Johnson, William H. Harrison, George M. Dallas, John Tyler, William R. King, James Buchanan, John C. Breckinridge, Ulysses S. Grant, Hannibal Hamlin, Rutherford B. Hayes, Schuyler Colfax, James A. Garfield and Grover Cleveland.

Autograph letters of members of the cabinet include Caleb Cushing, Reverdy Johnson, Caesar A. Rodney, Gideon Granger, Return J. Meigs, John M. Niles, B. W. Crowninshield, William Faxon, Henry Clay, William L. Marcy, William H. Seward, Charles Sumner, Daniel Webster, Alexander Hamilton, Levi Woodbury, George Bancroft, Jefferson Davis, Henry Dearborn, J. R. Poinsett, William Wilkins.

There are autograph letters from Judges Oliver Ellsworth, John Marshall, Charles Chauncey, Rufus Choate, Stephen Mix Mitchell and Truman Smith.

Signers of the Declaration include autograph letters of Samuel Huntington, Roger Sherman, William Williams, Oliver Wolcott, Francis Hopkinson, John Hancock, and Carter Braxton, besides short notes by, documents signed by or autographs of a number of others.

The Revolutionary War collection includes autograph letters of Zebulon Butler, John Douglas, Ebenezer Huntington, Marquis de Lafayette, Daniel Putman, Gold Selleck Silliman, Benjamin Talmadge, Joseph Trumbull, James A. Varnum, Jeremiah Wadsworth, James Wilkinson, David Wooster, and autographs, most of them attached to letters or documents, of Benedict Arnold, Lord Cornwallis, Eliphalet Dyer, Jedediah Elderkin, Israel Putnam and General William Tryon.

The collection of autographs of Governors of Connecticut lacks only eleven of being complete, and of these nine are previous to 1750. While many of these are autograph letters, not a few are signed documents. The collections of Lieutenant-Governors and Secretaries of Connecticut are less complete; but contain a number of well-known names. Autographs of only three Mayors of Hartford are needed to complete the collection.

Naval officers include autograph letters from S. Barron, J. A. Dahlgreen, David G. Farragut, L. M. Goldsborough, John Paul Jones, Oliver H. Perry, John Rogers and Charles Stewart; with letters signed by Esek Hopkins, Isaac Hull and David Porter; also the proceedings of a court martial in May, 1776, signed by a dozen officers including John Paul Jones and Dudley Saltonstall.

The English poets and authors include Lord Byron, Robert Southey and Alfred Tennyson. Among the female writers are Rose Terry Cooke and Harriet Beecher Stowe. The poets and authors are numerous and include Louis Agassiz, John J. Audobon, George Bancroft, Joel Barlow, John G. C. Brainard, George W. Cable, Fenimore Cooper, Theodore Dwight, Samuel G. Goodrich, Fitz-Greene Halleck; Oliver Wendell Holmes, Lemuel Hopkins, Henry W. Longfellow, James Russell Lowell, Jedediah Morse, Benjamin Trumbull, John G. Whittier. Another extensive collection is the men of note, which includes Jeffrey Amherst, Phineas T. Barnum, Thomas H. Benton, John Brown, Elihu Burritt, Samuel Colt, Earl of Devon, Eliphalet Dyer, David Dudley Field, Ulysses S. Grant, Horace Greeley, Joseph R. Hawley, Patrick Henry, John Ledyard, Phineas Lyman, Hollis, Duke of Newcastle, William Pitt, Jesse Root, Zephaniah Swift.

The Sigourney collection, which had been in part divided among other collections, has been regathered. It shows that Mrs. Sigourney carried on an extensive correspondence and contains autograph letters from Washington Allston, Catharine E. Beecher, Countess of Blessington, Fredrika Bremer, William Cullen Bryant, Silas Burroughs, Charles Carroll of Carrollton, Lewis Cass, Philander Chase, George Washington Park Custis, Duke of Devonshire; Charles Dickens, written from the City Hotel, Hartford, Maria Edgeworth, Edward Everett, Millard Fillmore, Charles Goodrich, Anne Grant, Horace Greeley, Sarah J. Hale, Sam Houston, Mary A. Jameson, Samuel F. Jarvis, Adoniram Judson, Mary Custis Lee, Elizabeth Leslie, Jane E. Locke, Thomas B. Macaulay, George B. McClellan, Dolly P. Madison, Harriet Martineau, Mary Russell Mitford, Caroline F. Orne, Robert Dale Owen, Edgar Allen Poe, William H. Prescott, T. Buchanan Read, Catherine M. Sedgwick, Ann S. Stephens, Grant Thorburn, Ithiel Town, John Trumbull the artist, John Trumbull the poet, Martin Van Buren, George Washington (presented to Mrs. Sigourney), John G. Whittier; Emma Willard, Martha Custis Williams and Nathaniel P. Willis.

The Civil War collection has not yet been listed; but it contains letters from many officers who took prominent parts in the conflict and numerous autographs of those who were less prominent.

A portrait of Capt. Lemuel White has been presented to us by his grand-daughter Mary Elizabeth White of Dorchester, Mass. Captain White was born in East Hartford, Nov. 1, 1762. He was a sea captain, in the China trade, and afterwards a merchant in East Hartford, where he was post-master and a justice of the peace. He was appointed a member of numerous state commissions. His death occurred Dec. 8, 1843. The portrait is signed "Foeigua Pinx," and was probably painted abroad.

Miss Mary E. Hastings of Hartford, whose gift of choice old furniture and other articles was noted in my last report, has made another valuable donation to the Society. This is a handsome case filled with memorials of the Lawrence family, her ancestors. Among these are a silver spoon that belonged to John and Marian (Beauchamp) Lawrence, parents of Treasurer John; silver shoe and knee buckles and a pair of Sheffield candlesticks of Treasurer John Lawrence; silver porringer of his wife Margaret (Chenevard) made by John Edwards (1670–1746) of Boston; portrait (from a painting) of Alice Adams, the fiance of Capt. Nathan Hale, and a small silver spoon that belonged to her, also a small metal eagle supposed to have been worn by Hale on his cap. There are numerous other articles, as spoons and forks, rings, pins, bracelets, keys, seals and other family memorials too numerous to be individually mentioned here.

Mrs. Wright Poindexter of West Hartford, a descendant of Gov. Joseph Talcott, has placed with the Society an interesting collection of Talcott family silver consisting of a porringer made by J. Lent of New York and marked with the initials of Matthew, son of Gov. Joseph; a small creamer made by E. White; a salt shaker made by Jacob Hurd of Boston; a pair of shoe buckles; three table spoons marked with the initials of Matthew and his wife Mary; six small spoons marked with the initials of Matthew, all of which formerly belonged to Gov. Joseph Talcott; also eight tablespoons, twelve teaspoons and two small spoons marked A L for Abigail Ledyard, the wife of Samuel Talcott, a grandson of Gov. Joseph; a tablespoon marked S H M, said to have belonged to the Mott family. This silver was all exhibited in one of our cases, and later the more important pieces were loaned for a time to the Wadsworth Atheneum for exhibition. Miss Ellen Earle Flagg has also placed with us for exhibition a silver tankard made by John Burt of Boston probably about 1740, for Hannah the wife of Dr. Jonathan Bull of Hartford, and a sister of General David Wooster. It is one of three which Abraham Wooster caused to be made and presented to his daughters at the time of their marriage.

On the occasion of the paper on Wampum read by Mr. Welles at our February meeting, a rather notable exhibit of this rare article was arranged in one of our cases. A part of it was the property of the Society and the remainder was loaned by one of our members.

Nearly twenty years ago our late member Charles W. Manwaring issued his monumental work giving A Digest of the Early Connecticut Probate Records: Hartford District, 1635–1750. The printing of these three volumes was made possible by the coöperation of three other members of the Society, Gen. Lucius A. Barbour, Miles W. Graves and Samuel E. Elmore, all of whom are now deceased. The remaining unsold copies of the work came into the possession of Gen. Lucius B. Barbour, a member of the Society and son of the former Gen. Barbour, who has most generously presented them to the Society. While the active demand has been filled during the twenty years since the first volume was issued, there is still a slow and steady sale of the work, which in time will add a considerable sum to the Society's funds.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT C. BATES, Librarian.

Resolve Incorporating

The Connecticut Historcial Society.

Passed May, 1825; Renewed May, 1839;

Amended February, 1905, May, 1925.

Resolved by this Assembly, That John Trumbull, Thomas C. Brownell, Timothy Pitkin, John S. Peters, William W. Ellsworth, Thomas Day, Thomas Robins, Daniel Burhans, Thomas Hubbard, Isaac Toucey, Nathaniel S. Wheaton, George Sumner, Roger M. Sherman, William T. Williams, Martin Wells, Joseph Battell, William Cooley, Thomas H. Gallaudet, Thomas S. Williams, Eli Todd, Walter Mitchell, George W. Doane, Samuel B. Woodward, S. H. Huntington, Samuel W. Dana, James Gould, Samuel A. Foote, Nathan Johnson, Hawley Olmsted, Benjamin Trumbull, John Hall, and their associates and successors, be, and hereby are ordained, constituted and declared to be forever hereafter, a body corporate, by the name of The Connecticut Historical Society, and by that name, they, their associates and successors shall and may have perpetual succession; shall be capable of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, and also to purchase, receive, hold and convey any estate, real or personal, to an amount not exceeding seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and may have a common seal, and the same may alter at pleasure, may establish rules relative to the admission of future members; may ordain, establish, and put in execution such by-laws and regulations, not contrary to the provisions of this charter, or the laws of this State, as shall be deemed necessary for the government of said Corporation.

The Governor of this State, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Judges of the Superior Court, shall be ex-officio members of the Society.

Said Corporation shall meet once a year for the choice of a President, Vice-President, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, and such other officers as may be designated from time to time by the by-laws of the Society.

The first meeting of the Society shall be holden at the State House in Hartford at such time as shall be designated by the Honorable John Trumbull, notice thereof being previously given in one or more newspapers printed in Hartford.

Provided, nevertheless, that this act of incorporation shall be subject to be revoked or altered, at the pleasure of the General Assembly.

By-Laws.

ARTICLE I. MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. The Society shall consist of active, corresponding, and honorary members. Only active members shall be entitled to vote in any meeting of the Society.

Corresponding and honorary members shall be persons residing out of the State of Connecticut, and shall not be subject to any admission fee or dues.

Honorary members shall be persons who may have rendered important public service to the State of Connecticut, or to the cause of historic inquiry, or literature generally.

SECTION 2. Every application for active membership shall be in writing, signed by the applicant, shall be supported by the written recommendation of at least one active member residing in the State of Connecticut, and shall be accompanied by the admission fee of three dollars. Such applications must be made upon blank forms furnished by the Society and shall contain a brief personal sketch of the applicant.

Every nomination for the election of corresponding or honorary members shall be based upon the application, in writing, of at least two active members, residing in the State of Connecticut, stating the reason for such nomination, and the qualifications of the persons proposed for membership.

SECTION 3. No person shall be voted for as an active, corresponding, or honorary member until at least the meeting next succeeding the one at which his election is recommended by the Committee on Membership.

Whenever a vote shall be taken on the admission of a member and there shall be found two ballots against his admission, the presiding officer shall declare the election postponed. At the next regular meeting, if the recommendation of the Committee on Membership shall be renewed, he may be admitted by the votes of two-thirds of the members present.

SECTION 4. Active members shall pay as annual dues to the Society three dollars if they reside within the city of Hartford, and two dollars if they reside without said city. Any active member, not indebted to the Society for dues, may constitute himself a life member by paying at one time the sum of fifty dollars.

The annual dues of members shall be payable in advance on the first day of May in each year. The payment of the annual dues shall constitute a condition of membership, and the neglect or refusal to pay the same for the period of six months after they become due shall be deemed a withdrawal from the Society.

ARTICLE II. OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The officers of the Society, to be elected at the annual meeting by ballot, and to hold their offices for one year and until others shall be chosen, shall be, a President, not exceeding eight Vice-Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, an Auditor, a Committee on Membership to consist of seven members, Committees on the Library, on Publication, and on Monthly Papers, each to consist of three members. Only active members resident in the State of Connecticut shall be eligible to office.

The preceding officers and the chairmen of the several committees shall constitute the Standing Committee of the Society.

The presiding officer shall name the members of all special committees ordered raised at any meeting.

A Librarian and Cabinet Keeper shall be appointed by the Standing Committee, whenever such appointment shall be deemed advisable.

SECTION 2. The President shall be chairman of the Standing Committee, and a member of the Committees on Membership, the Library, and Publication; shall preside at all meetings of the Society and of the Standing Committee; and shall deliver or provide for an address at the annual meeting.

The Recording Secretary shall call all meetings of the Society; shall have custody of the files, records, and seal of the Society; shall give notice to new members of their election, and furnish them certificates of membership; and shall keep an accurate journal of the transactions of the Society and of the Standing Committee.

The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence in behalf of the Society.

The Treasurer shall receive the admission fees, and report the names of the persons paying the same to the Recording Secretary; shall receive all other moneys due, and all donations or bequests of money made to the Society; shall pay to the order of the chairman of the Standing Committee such sums as may be required for the ordinary expenses of the Society and such as the Society or Standing Committee may otherwise direct to be paid; shall keep a true and faithful account of all moneys received and paid by him, and of the property and debts of the Society; and shall, at the annual meeting, render an audited statement thereof.

The Librarian, under the direction of the Committee on the Library, shall arrange and have charge of all books, pamphlets, manuscripts, and other articles belonging to or deposited in the rooms of the Society; and shall, at the annual meeting of the Society, make a full report of his doings as Librarian during the past year, and of the condition of the Library.

The Auditor shall, prior to the annual meeting, examine the books, accounts and financial statements of the Treasurer, and compare the same with the vouchers and securities in the Treasurer's hands and certify the result of such examination to the Society.

SECTION 3. The Committee on Membership shall consider all applications for membership, and shall report to the Society such applications as said Committee may approve and recommend for admission. No applications for membership shall be considered or acted upon by said Committee during a meeting of the Society.

The Committee on the Library shall have the general oversight and management of the Library, manuscripts and other collections belonging to or deposited with the Society. Said Committee shall make purchases for the library to such an amount as may be appropriated from time to time for the purpose.

The Committee on Publication shall have the superintendence of all publications ordered by the Society. They shall, from time to time, report to the Society respecting the selection and arrangement of such papers, from the library of the Society or other sources, as are most suitable for publication in volumes of the Society's Collections.

The Committee on Monthly Papers shall provide for a paper to be read at each regular meeting of the Society.

The Standing Committee shall act generally in behalf of the Society, and shall fill all vacancies in any offices until the next regular meeting of the Society. Any five members of this Committee may constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and a notice for a meeting of the Society shall be deemed a notice for a meeting of this Committee. Special meetings of this Committee may be called by the Recording Secretary by direction of the President.

ARTICLE III. MEETINGS.

SECTION 1. An annual meeting shall be held in the month of May, at such time as the Standing Committee shall appoint.

A regular meeting shall be held on the first Tuesday evening of each month from October to May inclusive, unless otherwise ordered.

SECTION 2. Special meetings shall be called by direction of the President, or, in his absence, on the application of three active members to the Recording Secretary.

Notice of each meeting of the Society shall be sent by mail to each active member at least two days prior thereto. And at any meeting, duly called and notified, ten members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE IV. DONATIONS AND DEPOSITS.

All donations to and deposits with the Society shall be entered in books kept for that purpose.

No donations shall be exchanged or disposed of unless the Society have a duplicate of the same.

All deposits left with the Society shall be carefully preserved, and may at any time be taken away by the depositor in person, or delivered on his written order. But every deposit which has not been so reclaimed or withdrawn shall, after the decease of the depositor, be entered as a donation, and be deemed the property of the Society; unless, at the time of making the deposit, other conditions shall have been prescribed by the depositor.

ARTICLE V. LIBRARY.

The rooms, with all books, manuscripts, pictures, and articles belonging to or deposited with the Society, shall be under the immediate charge of the Librarian, acting under the direction of the Committee on the Library.

The library shall be open for the inspection of the public, and the examination of books and manuscripts, and transcription therefrom, at such time, and on such conditions, as shall be prescribed by the Committee on the Library; and no book or manuscript shall be taken from the rooms without a special vote of the Society, except by the Committee on Publication.

ARTICLE VI. PUBLICATION FUND.

The legacy left to the Society by its late President, the Hon. Thomas Day, the avails of all life memberships, and all special donations and subscriptions which may be made thereto, shall constitute a Publication Fund, the income of which shall be applied, under the direction of the Committee on Publication, toward the expense of such publications as may be ordered by the Society.

ARTICLE VII. ALTERATIONS.

Any alteration of these by-laws shall be submitted to a regular meeting, held prior to that on which the vote on the same is taken.

President's Address.

To the Members of the Connecticut Historical Society:

The thirtieth of this month marks the one hundredth anniversary of the organization of this Society, and it seems fitting that mention of the fact should be made at this time. The General Assembly then in session having passed an act to incorporate the Connecticut Historical Society naming thirty-one incorporators, a meeting for incorporation was held at the State House in Hartford on May 30, 1825, which was presided over by the venerable poet and lawyer, Hon. John Trumbull, who was chosen president. Other officers chosen were Rt. Rev. Thomas C. Brownell, vice president; Thomas Day, Esq., recording secretary; Rev. Thomas Robbins, corresponding secretary; Walter Mitchell, Esq., treasurer. An address was made by Dr. Robbins on the objects of the Society; and an adjournment was taken to the following day. At the adjourned meeting on May 31 a constitution was adopted which was signed by sixteen members, organization was completed by the appointment of a standing committee, and an adjournment was taken for two days. On June 2 at the adjourned meeting twenty-eight persons were proposed for membership; and the Society may be considered as fairly launched upon its career. The removal of Judge Trumbull to Michigan later in the year was a blow to the Society from which it almost failed to recover. Its activities lessened and finally ceased with the failure to hold an annual election, so that it became "a matter of doubt whether the Charter of said Society is not forfeited by non-user." At this juncture application was made to the Assembly for a renewal of the charter of the Society, and an act of renewal was passed in May 1839. From this time the Society has steadily pursued its activities. The founding of the Society was no doubt due to the interest and efforts of Rev. Thomas Robbins, D.D., its first corresponding secretary and later its first librarian and, until the recent legacy from Mr. Hoadley, its greatest benefactor. Like credit should be given for its revival in 1839 to Hon. Henry Barnard, who later became its third president.

In the most important matter now under consideration by the Society, that of the erection of a building with the fund left for that purpose by the will of our former life member, George E. Hoadley, no definite steps have yet been taken. It seems, however, as if the time had now come when this problem should receive attention, and unless the Society feels differently, the committee that is now serving will give, during the coming year, its earnest attention to the solution of this problem. The amount received by the Society in December 1923 from the distribution of Mr. Hoadley's estate was $257,494.25. Through receipt and investment of income, reinvestment of a small portion of the principal, increase through stock dividends and appreciation in the value of securities this fund has now grown to a total value of $403,247.50; which it is believed is an amount sufficient to erect a building adequate for the needs of the Society.

The will of George H. Fitts of Ashford, Conn., who died January 10, 1925, and who has been a member of the Society for almost thirty years, contained a provision leaving a legacy of ten thousand dollars to the Society. It was specified in the will that this legacy should be held as a fund to be named the "George Henry Fitts Fund in Memory of Colonel Thomas Knowlton." Mr. Fitts was a great-grandson of Colonel Knowlton.

A circular was mailed to our members in December, telling of some of the treasures belonging to the Society and of the work which it is endeavoring to do and setting forth its financial needs. Several members in response to this circular have sent checks for sums varying from twenty-five to one hundred and twenty-five dollars. These sums have been added to our general fund.

During the year now closing twenty-three persons have been admitted to active membership and two have been added to our ex-officio list. Two who had been annual members have constituted themselves members for life. Sixteen active members, one of whom was a life member, have died. One member has resigned and several who had allowed their dues to become in arears have been dropped from our rolls. Our present membership consists of 20 ex-officio members, one of whom is also an active member, 492 active, of whom 32 are members for life, one honorary and two corresponding members; a total membership of 515.

We record the loss by death of the following members:

CHARLES EDWARD GROSS of Hartford, admitted to membership in July 1889, prominent in the legal profession and a former president of this Society, died December 31, 1924.

HOWARD WILLISTON CARTER of Norfolk, formerly a teacher in that town, a life member, admitted May 1890, died in California October 13, 1924.

SAMUEL OSCAR PRENTICE of Hartford, admitted February 1894, some time chief justice of the Supreme Court of the state, died November 2, 1924.

GEORGE HENRY FITTS of Willimantic, admitted February 1896, a descendant of Col. Thomas Knowlton, formerly in business in the West, died January 10, 1925.

GEORGE WILLIAM ELLIS of Hartford; admitted December 1904, an editor and writer, died February 20, 1925.

MRS. MARY PAMELIA MORRIS of Hartford, who was much interested in genealogical research, was admitted April 1905 and died September 12, 1924.

FRANK BOSWORTH BRANDEGEE of New London, a United States senator from this state, admitted May 1905, died October 14, 1924.

JOHN P. KELLOGG of Waterbury, a judge of the Connecticut Supreme Court, became an ex-officio member in March 1917 and died January 16, 1925.

COL. CHARLES E. THOMPSON of Hartford, admitted November 1920, long connected with insurance interests and at the time of his death governor of the Connecticut Society of Mayflower Descendants, died September 25, 1924.

MRS. KATHARINE S. BACON of Middletown, who was connected with many prominent families of the state, was admitted December 1920 and died June 24, 1924.

Huber Gray Buehler, principal of Hotchkiss School in Lakeville, admitted December 1920, died June 30, 1924.

Eli Whitney, a prominent resident of New Haven, admitted January 1921, died June 12, 1924.

Frank C. Sumner, admitted March 1921, a prominent banker of Hartford, died December 9, 1924.

William Lucius Armstrong of Hartford, admitted December 1918, died September 12, 1924.

William H. Newell of Hartford, prominent in the life insurance field, admitted November 1923, died June 8, 1924.

Lawrence Brainerd of Cambridge, Mass., a well known genealogist, admitted January 1924, died March 12, 1925.

The following papers have been read at our regular monthly meetings:

In October a paper by Herbert H. White on the "Defense of the sea-coast of Connecticut during the Revolution," describing the various fortifications, the raids by the British and the activities of the American boats.

"Cartwright's Journal of the Labrador" was the subject of the paper in November by Professor Henry A. Perkins. The paper was based upon the story told in the Journal and also gave a sketch of Cartwright.

Rev. Samuel C. Bushnell of New Haven told of "The 'Monitor' and the 'Merrimac'—inside information" at the December meeting, giving an interesting story of the building of the "Monitor" and a vivid description of her encounter with the "Merrimac."

Dr. Allan D. Risteen at the January meeting gave some "Side lights on Shakespeare," sketching the times in which he lived and giving an account of the families with whom he is known to have been acquainted.

"Lebanon—a legacy" was the title of a charmingly written paper describing that old Connecticut Town, which was read in February by Harry K. Taylor.

At the March meeting Dr. George H. Cohen described in detail "A new world peace plan" which he had evolved.

George A. Long at the April meeting gave a talk upon "Hartford inventors of the past and their achievements," sketching the lives of these men and giving accounts of important inventions by them.

At the May meeting Col. Francis Parsons read a paper, written in his usual charming style, entitled "Benjamin Silliman visits England in 1805."

It seems fitting to call attention at this time to the gradual increase of the principal of the Society's Publication Fund through the sale from time to time of books which have been presented by the following members: Trescott C. Barnes, Robbins Battell, Morgan G. Bulkeley, William H. Bulkeley, James J. Goodwin, Mary Hall, Edwin Pond Parker, James Shephard, George B. Thayer.

I would suggest that as soon as arrangements for so doing can be made and a favorable opportunity occurs, a permanent and full time assistant to the librarian be secured—one who may have the benefit of the knowledge and experience of our present librarian, and one that may be trained so that when the time comes (a time which we hope is in the far distant future) that our present librarian feels it desirable to be relieved of his duties, we will have some one who can, in a measure, fill his place.

MORGAN B. BRAINARD,

President.

Librarian's Report.

Mr. President and Members of the Society:

Once more the year has rolled around and brings to me the not unpleasant duty of again calling to your attention some matters of interest relating to the Society and the work which it is endeavoring to accomplish.

It is only a repetition of what has more than once been said to state that the overcrowded condition of our rooms continues and increases. Shelves are crowded to their limit and in some portions of our rooms the floors are so covered with piles of books that it is only through narrow and winding paths that the room may be traversed. Three tall cases in our hall or meeting room have been shelved and filled with large books that are seldom used; thus giving some space in our stack room for recent accessions. In our newspaper rooms the overflow from the shelves is stacked in piles on bases raised from the floor to avoid dampness. Our manuscript vaults, although their contents have been subjected to some rearrangement in order to economize space, are now practically filled. Our storage space for editions of our publications and other duplicate books is fully occupied and we have by courtesy of the Wadsworth Atheneum already encroached upon that institution's scant storage space. Where the edition of even one more volume of our "Collections," when issued, can be stored, your librarian does not know. It is scarcely necessary to say that under these conditions the Society's library cannot be used to the best advantage; and your librarian is sometimes unable to locate a book or pamphlet that is certainly in the library. The present situation from that point of view is extremely discouraging. Let us hope, however, that a future still brighter than its past is in store for the Society.

In addition to the usual genealogical workers, students of history and incidental users of the library, there have been during the year a number of persons doing original research work in various historical fields who have made good use of our library, some of whom traveled a long distance for the purpose.

The total of accessions during the year, other than manuscripts, is slightly less than last year; but is above the average for several preceding years. The gifts were 591 volumes, 584 pamphlets and 77 miscellaneous. The purchases were 224 volumes, 241 pamphlets and 114 miscellaneous; among which were eight volumes credited to the Charles J. Hoadly fund, five volumes to the Lucy A. Brainard Book Fund and two volumes to the William F. J. Boardman Fund. Two volumes and three pamphlets were added by direct exchange. These make a total of 817 volumes, 828 pamphlets and 191 miscellaneous; and a grand total of 1836 items.

The number of readers who from day to day have made use of the library during the year now ending is 3,323. This is slightly greater than the number for last year, which was considered an unusual year; and is more than seven per cent above the average for the five years next preceding this.

"The Wyllys Papers, 1590–1796," forming the twenty-first volume of the Society's series of "Collections," upon which work has been in progress for two years, were issued in February as an octavo volume of 600 pages, including a sketch of Gov. George Wyllys and a rather comprehensive index. The important positions held by members of this family in Connecticut during colonial days and the numerous early and interesting letters and documents which the volume contains, make this, it is believed, a book of more than ordinary value. In calling attention to this volume mention should again be made of the courtesy of Lemuel A. Welles, Esq., a member of the Society and owner of the Wyllys manuscripts, in permitting the Society to print these manuscripts.

The "annual report," a pamphlet of 57 pages containing the usual review of the Society's activities for the preceding year, was issued in July.

Our collection of printed genealogies has been increased during the year by the addition of the following: Avery, Bagg, Banning, Bridge, Buck, Chapin, Cowing, Dommerich and others, Dutcher, Eaton, Eddy Association, Field Ancestry, Haynes, Hillhouse, Hungerford, Jaudon, Judd, McNary, Nichols, Nye, Olmsted, Orton, Paine, Perry, Pierce, Platt, Reynolds, Rockwell and Keeler, Rockwell, Spoor, Stearns, Taber, Torrey, Treadwell, Underwood, Warner, Winchell, Wyatt Ancestry.

To our unrivaled collection of Connecticut eighteenth century imprints, publications of the following years have been added: 1717, 1783, [1786?], 1787, 1789, 1796, 1798, 1799.

A number of the once popular annuals and gift books have been added to our extensive collection of these publications; a collection established through the gift a few years ago by our member Caroline M. Hewins of her splendid collections of these works.

The Hartford Printing Company (Elihu Geer Sons) have continued the building of our library of directories of different cities by the gift of 76 volumes. These out of date volumes are consulted much more frequently than might be supposed, and are often referred to by the life insurance companies, as well as by persons who are seeking missing relatives or friends.

The generous gift received from two of our members, Edward B. Morris and John Felt Morris was a most welcome and valuable one. It consists of books, pamphlets, newspaper clippings and manuscripts gathered or prepared by two former and now deceased members, John E. Morris and Mrs. Mary P. Morris, parents of the donors. A majority of the books and pamphlets are publications of various patriotic and hereditary societies. Foremost among the clippings are two series mounted in scrap books and reaching back for about a generation of time from the present. The first series consists of 131 volumes of "Obituary Notices" accompanied by three manuscript volumes of index. The second of 52 volumes of "Social Notes" accompanied by two manuscript volumes of index. These volumes have already proved their worth, and they will grow increasingly valuable as the years pass. Already on one occasion a volume of the Obituaries furnished desired information about a deceased public man, who had had a national career, that could not be found in any published book and that two of the largest libraries of the country could not supply. There are also a quantity of clippings roughly assorted under date or subject, that remain in boxes, unmounted and unindexed. Naturally these clippings are to a certain degree local in their nature; but they contain much that is of nation wide and even of international interest. Accompanying the above series are Hartford Times genealogical notes mounted in five volumes, historical articles relating to Hartford mounted in two volumes, and Boston Transcript genealogical notes for about fifteen years, carefully arranged in chronological order, but unmounted. The manuscript genealogies and copies of records, which are listed elsewhere in this report, form valuable additions to our collections along these lines.

Among publications of special interest added to the library may be mentioned Philips' Notes on the Life and Works of Bernard Romans, Akagi's Town Proprietors of the New England Colonies, Minutes of Methodist Conferences in America 1773–1794, three volumes relating to Lorenzo and Peggy Dow, the first eleven volumes (1847–1857) of the Derby Journal; Abridged Compendium of American Genealogy and Jones' Old Silver of American Churches from Vice President Williams, Victoria History of the Counties of England, Worcester vol. 4, Berkshire vol. 4, and Index to York, from our late Vice President James J. Goodwin, Old Times of North Yarmouth, Me., volume of scarce pamphlets by Rev. Samuel Fisk of Lebanon, Authentic Narrative of the Seminole War printed at Providence in 1836 and apparently an edition unknown to collectors, the revised edition of Nutting's Pilgrim Furniture—the dedication copy—the gift of Henry W. Erving to whom it was dedicated, Kelly's Early Domestic Architecture of Connecticut the gift of President Brainard, Johnson's Wonder Working Providences printed at London in 1654, the gift of Clifford E. Bristol of Winsted, unfortunately not a perfect copy, a set of the Wyoming Commemorative Association reports from our member E. S. Tillotson.

A paper entitled Some Notes on Wampum, written and read before the Society by our member E. Stanley Welles, has been privately published by him and one half of the edition presented to the Society to be sold. Proceeds from the sale of these pamphlets are to be allowed to accumulate until they amount to two hundred dollars, which sum is to form the principal of a fund the income of which is to be expended in the purchase of books for the library. By vote of the Society this fund has been named the Edwin Stanley Welles Fund.

On the occasion of the reading of this paper by Mr. Welles, a rather unusual display of strings of wampum was shown in one of our cases. A part of this was the property of the Society and the remainder was loaned for the occasion by one of our members.

A small portrait on canvas of John Lawrence of Hartford, painted by a member of the Lawrence family, was presented to us by his great-great-great-granddaughter, Mary E. Hastings of Hartford, who has previously made valuable gifts to the Society. John Lawrence for twenty years from 1769–1789 held the important position of treasurer of Connecticut. He was also United States commissioner of loans for Connecticut during the Revolution.

At the time last month of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the encounter at Lexington and Concord a display of rare documents, engravings and printed matter closely connected with that event was made. The most important of the manuscripts was the official announcement of the engagement, dated "In Provintial Congress Watertown April 23, 1775," signed by "Joseph Warren Presid^t Pro Temp," and dispatched by John Bliss, a member of that Congress, "To the Govr & Co of Connecticutt." The most important prints were a colored set of the four scenes engraved by Amos Doolittle of New Haven depicting the advance and retreat of the British and the engagements at Lexington green and Concord bridge. The April twenty-eighth issue of the Connecticut Gazette, published in New London showing the first detailed account of the engagement printed in Connecticut. Numerous other items of interest were also shown.

A splendid addition to the Lucy A. Brainard Book Fund was received from the Case, Lockwood & Brainard Company in the gift from that company to the Society of the remaining unsold copies of the Vital Records of Woodstock, 1686–1854, issued in 1914 as the fourth in the series of Connecticut Vital Records. A further welcome addition to this fund was received from Hon. Newton C. Brainard who presented to the Society the remaining copies of the Orderly Book of Lieut. Abraham Chittenden, Adj't 7th Conn. Reg't, Aug. 16 to Sept. 29, 1776, which was privately issued by him three years ago. Proceeds from the sale of these volumes are to be added to the principal of this fund. Miss Brainard's cash gifts for this fund from time to time amounted to $1,000 and many years ago when the fund was small $100 was by vote of the Society added to the principal from the accrued income. Proceeds from the sale of books presented by Miss Brainard and by her nephews Morgan B. Brainard, our president, and Hon. Newton C. Brainard, together with increase of the fund through wise investment have already added $450 to the principal of this fund.

Two local events of more than passing historical interest have been called to the attention of our members at our regular meetings, and so have been entered upon the records of the Society: the total eclipse of the sun on the morning of January twenty-fourth and the distinct earthquake shock which occurred on the evening of February twenty-eighth.

The following have been added during the year to our collection of manuscripts by the persons named:
